ANNUAL ADDRESS
OF GEN. HALEY

READ TO CONFEDERATE VETERANS ASSEMBLED IN REUNION AT THE NORMAL THIS MORNING.

(Following is the address of General D. M. Haley, commander Oklahoma Division United States Confederate Veterans, delivered at the reunion this morning. General Haley is near 80 years old and in feeble health, therefore he could not be present at the reunion this year. The address was read by his son, W. E. Haley, of McAlester.)

Comrades and Friends: Another year has transpired and we have again foregathered to enjoy the annual occasion that brings more joy to our hearts than any other social function of the year. From the end of one to the beginning of the other we look forward with pleasurable anticipations of meeting and conversing with our old comrades. Personally there is no pleasure that I treasure more and I assure you comrades that your warm handshakes and your glad welcome are greater and more potent tonic than any compound that has yet come from the chemist's laboratory.

There is a special message of gladness that greets us at this reunion. At each reunion during the past four years we have had a condition confronting us that placed more or less of a damper on the full enjoyment of the occasion. The breaking out of the great world war was followed the succeeding year by the tense situation between our own great America and the German War Lords, created by the ruthless and inhuman methods of their warfare and by the malicious and unpardonable conduct of their submarine activities. By the time we had gathered again this situation had developed into a state of war between our country and the German alliance and the United States was in the midst of the most mammoth undertaking ever attempted by any country. That of raising, training and equipping an army of three million men; men unaccustomed to taking orders from any man, men who had lived a life of freedom and liberty such as has been enjoyed by the people of no other nation on earth. To raise an army of this magnitude and adjust it to fighting conditions, practically overnight, is an undertaking so stupendous that none other but America would have attempted it. But to Americans nothing is beyond them.

At our last reunion which was held a year ago in Altus, this magnificent army, this flower of the manhood of the world, was not only complete in every detail, but the greater number of our manly men had crossed over and were making their presence decidedly felt by the unspeakable Hun. One year after they had been called from the pursuits of civil life this body of unarmy men, who were called money grabbers by the Germans, were pushing back and trampling under foot the proud Prussian Guard, the so-called unbeatable branch of the Hohenzollern army. This body of men who, the Huns reported to their people, would not fight, and could not fight, were now starting the backward march; I should say rout, of an army trained almost from the cradle, and heralded as the peer of any body of fighting men in the world. You all know the rest. Starting with Belleau Wood and continuing at Chateau Thierry, Argonne Forest and all along the line, they set such a pace that even the French could not keep step with them. Practically within three months from the time they landed in France, when the Germans were threatening Paris, the Huns were not only completely whipped but demoralized and crying for peace on any terms. And now, my comrades, we are brought down to the present year, the present reunion, which should be the greatest for rejoicing and thanksgiving in the history of our organization, for the gratifying consummation of this great conflict. We are now reaping the fruits of what transpired during those other years when we were downcast at the thought of our boys having to go to foreign lands to fight for our freedom and the freedom of the whole world. True, much as we regret it, many of our brave boys are now peacefully sleeping in foreign fields, but it is the price we knew would have to be paid; the sacrifice that had to be laid on the altar of liberty and civilization.

So my comrades, we meet today for the double purpose of renewing old friendships and of rejoicing in the message of "Peace on earth again and good will toward all men."

With this added stimulant to our natural love and affection for the occasion I know we are here to make this one of the greatest and grandest reunions we have ever held. In this connection I might also say, our cup of joy is added to by fortunately being the guests of the splendid and

NICKELL-MONROE OPEN
NEW FURNITURE STORE

The building at 123 West Main, owned by Ed Gwin and formerly occupied by S. Jacobson, has just recently been refloored, repapered and repainted, until it looks like a new building. This building is now occupied by M. Nickell and Frank Monroe, who are putting in a furniture store there. A part of their stock has already arrived and has been installed and they will be ready to open for business within a very short time.

Messrs Nickell and Monroe are both citizens of Ada and need no introduction to Ada people. Mr. Nickell has been in the bakery business on West Twelfth for a number of years until a few months ago. Mr. Monroe has been engaged at Smith's Furniture Store for some time and is very much acquainted with this particular line of business.

Atlanta Negro
Wins Prize in Essay Contest

Louis J. Harper, a young Atlanta negro, has just been announced as the winner of third prize in a nationwide essay contest on the subject, "Why We Should Have an American Language." The contest was conducted by the state library of Ohio, and was open to all accredited students of all universities, colleges and high schools throughout the country.

Young Harper, who is just 20 years of age, was a member of the Students' Army Training Corps of Atlanta university, and completed his sophomore year in 1919 with honors. The contest was based on suggestions contained in an address of Senator Robert J. O'Brien, delivered in the Ohio senate April 1, and was partly inspired by a remark of the great French Premier Clemenceau's reply to Melville E. Stone, head of the Associated Press, when Stone complimented the "tiger" upon his excellent command of English. The premier replied: "I don't speak English; I speak American."

In writing of Harper's success, J. H. Newman, state librarian of Ohio, said:

"This young man has great promise for his race. Nothing can possibly contribute more to the uplift of the African than the education and careful training of such men as young Harper."

"He is entitled to all the credit he receives, for the reason that no judge knew anything about the name of the individual writer until after the decision. Therefore, the elimination of all prejudice or partiality from the result."

So widespread was the interest in this contest that Mr. Newman has decided to launch another contest, along these lines, some time during the coming fall, after all the schools are organized for their new year's work.

Railway Shopmen
Refuse the Terms

WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—The committee of one hundred, representing the railroad shopmen, informed Director General Hines today that they could not accept as a basis of settlement of their demands the rates submitted to them yesterday by President Wilson. Results of the negotiations were communicated to leaders of union locals throughout the country with instructions that the strike vote should be taken immediately on the president's proposals. Pending vote it was urged recommended that all men remain on jobs.

LAWTON CONGRESSMAN IMPORT-ANT ENTITY IN SECURING REPEAL OF DAYLIGHT SAVING ACT.

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, D. C., Aug. 25.—Representative Scott Ferris' aid in securing the repeal of the daylight savings law merited and gained a strong letter of thanks from T. C. Atkinson, Washington representative of the National Grange, a farmers organization 50 years old with more than a million producing members. Ferris introduced a bill for the repeal on the first day of the present congress, and his tireless work for its passage, including many appearances before the committee and speeches on the floor, effectively contributed to the result. As chairman of the democratic congressional committee and his intimacy and popularity with colleagues has caused him to be termed "Oklahoma's Congressman Efficient." Every member of Oklahoma's present delegation aided in the repeal. Senator Gore was in Oklahoma looking after his political fences and did not vote.

AND WE PAY BRITISH FOR LETTING US HELP

By News' Special Service
WASHINGTON, Aug. 24.—For each man transported overseas in British vessels the United States government will pay Great Britain $81.75, under an agreement reached between Brigadier General Frank T. Hines, director of transportation, in the war department, and Lord Reading, representing the British government.

Secretary Baker, it was learned today, has approved the agreement, which fixes a price a little more than half that tentatively put forward by the British government at the beginning of the negotiations.

The total cost of the British tonnage used in troop transportation is estimated at $83,767,250, the number of men carried having been 1,027,000. Similar negotiations are in progress with the French and other governments.

Amendment to the Peace Treaty Will
Simplify Matters

By the Associated Press
WASHINGTON, Aug. 26.—Under a blanket amendment to the peace treaty, agreed to by the senate foreign relations committee today, American representation on various international commissions which are to supervise European reconstruction, with the exception of the reparations commission, was eliminated. Changes which were voted nine to seven along party lines would affect about a score of commissions and would change the language of the peace treaty in over fifty places.

Damage Suit Against Frisco.

Suit for damages was filed against the Frisco yesterday by Pat Manning, brother and next friend of Hillery Manning and Wade Manning, both minors. The suit grew out of the assault made last week upon the two Manning lads by A. V. Rupprecht, conductor on a Frisco passenger train. The suit makes Walker D. Hines, director general of railroads, and A. V. Rupprecht defendants.

The petition sets forth that Hillery Manning and Wade Manning were on the platform of the Frisco passenger station selling hamburgers, that they had permission from the city authorities to sell hamburgers anywhere in the city, that on the occasion mentioned they were conducting themselves in a peaceful and orderly manner, that they were assaulted by the conductor, and their hamburger baskets were kicked off the platform. Wherefore they bring this suit for damages.

Plaintiff would further aver that the kicking of said baskets and assault as aforesaid having been done in the presence, view and hearing of most all the said passengers and in the presence and view of all persons assembled at said station and the harsh and cruel treatment by said conductor they have been caused to suffer the loss of their property consisting of 40 or 50 hamburgers, and have been made to suffer great pain by fright, embarrassment and humiliation, causing mental and physical suffering.

Wherefore plaintiff asks for $1,000 actual damages and $1,000 exemplary damages and the costs of this action. J. M. Parker represents the plaintiff.

It will be recalled that Conductor Rupprecht was tried in police court last Friday on two charges for assault and disturbing the peace and was fined $20.00 in each case. He has made his appeal to the county court.

S. H. King Wires Regrets.

The following telegram was read at the convention this morning: "St. Louis, Mo., Aug. 26. Sec'y, Chamber of Commerce, "Ada, Okla.

ARDMORE WANTS
NEXT REUNION

CHAMBER OF COMMERCE OF THAT CITY MAKES STRONG BID FOR NEXT STATE REUNION.

The Ardmore Chamber of Commerce, through Mr. J. M. Hoad, of that city, is making a strong bid for the next state reunion of the United Confederate Veterans.

Mr. Hoad brings a letter of invitation to the veterans, now meeting in Ada, signed by the officials of the Chamber of Commerce, in which everything the veterans could desire is offered.

Since the Confederate Veteran's Home is located at Ardmore it does seem that it would be the logical place for a state convention, and many of the veterans interviewed by the News are favorable to Ardmore.

The letter from the Ardmore Chamber of Commerce to the veterans now assembled at Ada is as follows:

"August 23, 1919.
"To the United Confederate Veterans, in Convention Assembled, Ada, Oklahoma.
Gentlemen:

"The Ardmore Chamber of Commerce extends to you a cordial and earnest invitation to hold your next annual meeting in Ardmore.

"In extending this invitation we beg to say that Ardmore is now the fourth city in population in Oklahoma; that it is the metropolis of the southern half of the state; that we have ample hotel facilities, including a hotel not excelled by any in the state; that if hotel facilities should be overtaxed by the people in attendance that our homes are open to receive you; that we offer you as a meeting place the most commodious convention hall in the state, owned by our supreme pleasure to receive and entertain you and your auxiliary organizations in manner commensurate with the honors due your great organization; and that we believe it is altogether appropriate to hold your next convention in the city which is the seat of the Oklahoma Confederate Veteran's Home, allowing the elderly people now in the care and protection of this institution at least one more opportunity to attend your annual meeting.

"Hoping that you will accord us the honor which we seek in entertaining you, we are

"Cordially yours,
"ARDMORE CHAMBER OF COMMERCE.

HAM-RAMSEY COMPANY
IN CLARKSVILLE, TEX.

W. B. Jones, of this city, has a brother living in Clarksville, Tex., where Ham and Ramsey are holding a revival similar to the one which they recently held in Ada. Mr. Jones handed the News a copy of the Clarksville Times yesterday which contains an account of the opening of the meeting at that place. We clip the following excerpt from the article in question:

Great Revival Expected.

"The Ham-Ramsay forces have come to Clarksville, they state, to put on a real revival. In Ada, Oklahoma they pitched their tent for the same purpose and before they left five weeks later approximately 1,500 had taken to the sawdust trail. There may not be as much material available hereabouts as there was in Ada and Clarksville may be more difficult to reach, spiritually speaking, but it is generally supposed that Brothers Ham and Ramsey have the ammunition for most all temperments and climates, and no doubt they intend to use it in a most effectual manner, once they have the ball rolling their way."

STEAKS LOWER SINCE H. C. L. PROBE

"PITILESS PUBLICITY" HAVING
EFFECT ON PROFITERS
IN OKLAHOMA CITY,
SAYS REPORT.

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 25.—The "pitiless publicity" and other elements of the campaign to lower the cost of living and to corner the profiteer are bearing fruit, at least in Oklahoma City. About two weeks ago the cheapest desirable cut of beef was twenty cents or more a pound at practically every market in the capital city. Steaks, tenderloins, round and other steaks were from thirty-five to forty and fifty cents a pound. A daily paper Saturday carried half a dozen butchers' ads in which the price of all "short steaks" was twenty-five to thirty cents a pound. Roasts which had been as high as forty cents were twenty-five and under until the consumer, who was satisfied with a chuck could get it at twelve and a half. A few weeks ago a butcher was heard to say "there ain't no such thing as a ten cent soup bone." In the same advertisement all soup bones were priced at five cents a pound.

Since the state board of agriculture announced that it had followed several beeves from the producer to the consumer and found that the retail butcher was buying carcasses, halves and quarters at eleven and fifteen cents a pound and retailing the same meat at from thirty-five to sixty-five cents, a decided drop in the price of beef cuts has been noticed.

The car of sugar ordered by the state board of agriculture for distribution through the marketing commission, arrived Friday afternoon. This is to be sold in 100-pound quantities at $9.66 a hundred plus the actual cost of handling. The sugar will be dispatched over the state on request and no community it was announced will be favored in the distribution.

Hopeless Diseases Can Not Be Cured by Doctors or Medicine

There are some diseases which are absolutely hopeless and past cure by any physician or medicine, but they may yet be palliated and a medicine if it can not help in one case it may help in another. To anyone suffering from a disease a remission is a degree of health and a medicine that relieves or palliates a disease is of great benefit. We cannot guarantee to cure any disease with Number 40 For The Blood, but we quote word for word what the ingredients in 40 are recommended for in the U. S. Dispensary and New American Materia Medica. In the treatment of blood poison, an acknowledged specific among the schools of physicians, removes the causes of disease and stimulates the removal of waste, thus indirectly encouraging nutrition. Disorders of the nervous system demand this remedy, such as neuralgia, chronic rheumatism, gouty conditions, malnutrition, auto-toxication, constipation. Used with phenomenal success in eczema and skin diseases, lumbago, glandular swellings, ulcerations of mucous membranes and in general disorders of the stomach, liver, kidneys and spleen. ## Passing of Liquor Will Give Impetus To Music In U. S.

The passing of liquor is going to prove an immense impetus to music in this country, not only artistically, but commercially. This confident and somewhat surprising assertion is made editorially by the Washington Herald, which goes on to say:

"This impetus will reflect itself in a greater patronage of the concert stage, more pupils for the music-teacher, in the larger sale of musical instruments and more employment to professional musicians at an increased wage."

"It is not just for the reason that people will have more money to spend for music and music-making devices, but it is, in fact, that those of us who used to use alcoholic beverages in one form or another to get away from the material of every-day life, are going to use music to a degree for the same purpose."

"One of the musical publications prophesies that next year will find twenty-five piece orchestras in many of the big hotels where but eight or ten men are now employed."

"Many of the big cities now have symphony orchestras of their own that have not had them before."

"Music is one means by which we can forget the material for a time at least, but without intoxication as in the case of booze."

THE TOWN GOSSIP

By MILTON LESTER

ONCE in a while,
WHEN I get lonesome,
I'LL GO home early.
IN THE afternoon,
AND WILL find something to do.
AROUND THE house,
AND IT was that way.
YESTERDAY AFTERNOON,
AND I went home.
AT ABOUT five o'clock,
AND STARTED to read.
AND I happened to think,
THAT I'D been asked,
TO PAINT a chair.
OUT ON the back porch,
SO I put down the magazine.
AND GOT some paint.
AND STARTED to work.
AND MADE a good job of it.
EVEN IF I do say it myself.
AND THIS noon time,
WHEN I went home,
TO GET some dinner.
I'D FORGOTTEN,
ALL ABOUT the chair.
AND WHILE waiting,
FOR DINNER to get ready,
I WENT out.

ON THE back porch.
AND PICKED up a paper.
AND SAT down.
AND STARTED to read.
AND I was real warm.
AND KIND of damp like.
AND HAD on a pair.
OF NICE blue trousers.
AND WAS sitting there.
FANNING MYSELF.
AND TRYING to get cool.
WHEN ALL of a sudden,
I HAPPENED to think,
OF THE painting.
THAT I had done.
YESTERDAY AFTERNOON.
AND I eased up.
OUT OF the chair.
REAL SLOW like.
AND TURNED around.
TO LOOK at it.
AND FOUND out.
THAT I hadn't been sitting.
IN THE newly painted chair.
AFTER ALL.
AND THEN I went inside.
AND GOT some dinner.
I THANK you.

TREATY AGAIN HAS SPOTLIGHT

SENATORS AGAIN GET BUSY ON PACT AFTER THE HOLL-
DAY OF A QUIET
SUNDAY.

By News' Special Service

WASHINGTON, Aug. 25.—The peace treaty holds the spotlight in congress again this week with a possibility that before the week is over the report of the foreign relations committee may bring the question of ratification into the open senate.

Though Chairman Lodge declines to make any prediction as to when the committee will report, democratic members said today they had an understanding with the republicans that action would be taken this week, if possible. Some of the members thought unlooked for delay might arise, however, from the committee's decision yesterday to request additional information from President Wilson.

Today the committee resumed for a day, its open hearings, but most of the week is expected to be devoted to discussion of amendments to the treaty. Debate on the treaty also is to continue in the senate. Senators Nugent, democrat of Idaho, Kirby, democrat of Arkansas, and Owen, Oklahoma, having given notice they would speak.

The Franco-American treaty will come before the senate judiciary committee today for consideration with consideration of a sub-committee report holding the treaty to be no violation of the United States constitution.

High cost of living questions will continue to the fore in both branches of congress. The senate agriculture is expected to report early in the week an amendment to "put teeth" in the Lever food control act.

Two important measures are expected to come before the senate this week in the Smoot bill for development of public oil, gas, coal and phosphate lands and in the prohibition enforcement. The former probably will come to a final vote early in the week but considerable debate is expected to precede action on the latter.

IN FIFTEEN DAYS GAINED FIFTEEN POUNDS

Thompson Was So Rndown He Couldn't Walk Without Help—
Tanlac Builds Him Up.

"I commenced taking Tanlac just fifteen days ago, and have gained exactly fifteen pounds so far, which gives me an actual gain of one pound a day," said Petetr Thompson, who for the past six years has been connected with the Kansas City park board, and who lives at 409 Chestnut street, Kansas City, Mo., a few days ago.

"When I began taking Tanlac," he continued, "I was so weak and run down that I couldn't walk a step unless I had somebody to lean on, but I can get out and cover a good many blocks now, and am getting ready to go back to work. Sometime ago I had a bad spell of typhoid pneumonia, and it came very near finishing me up. I pulled through, however, but I had never been able to regain my strength and my appetite was so poor that I couldn't eat enough to keep me alive hardly. My head ached all the time, and I would often have dizzy spells. I also suffered from nervousness and never got a good night's sleep. My stomach was in a mighty bad condition too, and everything I ate disagreed with me and I would have the worst sort of attacks of indigestion. I was certainly in bad shape and I had begun to think that I would never find a medicine that would get me started up hill again."

"I had been reading the different statements about Tanlac, and one day I saw where a lady whom I knew very well, had been greatly helped by taking this Tanlac, so I made up my mind right then and there to give it a trial myself. I commenced to get better right away, and it is just simply remarkable the way I have gained in weight and strength. Why, I can go anywhere I want to, now, and I can just feel myself getting stronger every day. My appetite has come back, and I eat three hearty meals every day, and what I eat agrees with me all right. I never have indigestion or any kind of stomach trouble any more, and my nerves are so steady that I sleep like a log every night. The headaches have left me, too, and so have those dizzy spells, and in fact, I just feel fine all the time. Tanlac has just simply fixed me up all right, and that is why I talk so much about it, and am always recommending it to other people."

PONTOTOC VETERANS CALLED TO ORGANIZE

In response to a call just issued the soldiers, sailors and marines of Pontotoc county will meet at Ada, September 13, to organize a county branch of the American Legion. The date selected will be the last day of the Pontotoc County Fair. A large crowd of people will be in Ada on that day, and it is very desirable that every soldier, sailor or marine in the county attend the meeting and take part in the organization. The meeting will be called to order at 10 o'clock a. m. at the Normal auditorium.

The purpose of the meeting is to perfect a permanent organization, elect officers, adopt a constitution, and appoint such committees as may be found necessary. It will be a business meeting strictly and questions of vital importance will come up for action. The only branch of the American Legion thus far organized in Pontotoc county is the one at Roff, which was organized two weeks ago.

Confederate Veterans to Atlanta Oct. 7, 8, 9 and 10; Hundred Thousand Going

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 25.—More than one hundred thousand people from every part of the nation are expected to attend the twenty-fourth annual reunion of United Confederate Veterans in Atlanta October 7, 8, 9 and 10.

For several reasons the reunion will be the most significant these grand old men of the south have known since they furled their tattered banners more than half a century ago. For one thing, it is the first reunion since the world war and it will be in the nature of a big peace jubilee. For another, it may be the last time the soldiers who followed Lee and Jackson raise their voices together in the "rebel yell," for the number is growing smaller every year; the veterans are getting less and less able to travel, and another twelve-month may see the reunion custom ended.

For still a third reason, the reunion will be unwontedly big because the United States government is granting a cheap rate on the railroads of one cent a mile. This rate may be secured both going and coming by anyone who presents a certificate showing his official connection with the reunion, whether he be a veteran, a relative of a veteran, a member of the Sons of Confederate Veterans or other organization associated with the reunion.

The Sons of Veterans and the Confederate Memorial Association, founded by the women of the south in 1865, will hold their conventions jointly with the reunion, thus adding to the size of the crowd and the brilliance of the occasion.

All visitors to Atlanta will be entertained royally. The people of the Georgia capital has subscribed a fund of $60,000 to finance the balls, the parade, and other functions of the reunion. The veterans themselves will be cared for in the homes of the people. At some reunions they have had to sleep in tents and many of them suffered from cold and wet. Nothing of the kind will happen in Atlanta. Already hundreds of Atlantians have volunteered to take one or more veterans as their guests during the reunion, and a campaign will be launched next week to secure homes for 10,000 more veterans. At the same time, a canvas of the city will be made to secure accommodations for other visitors. The hotels will increase their accommodations and have pledged themselves not to raise their rates. Boarding houses and private homes where guests will be accommodated will be tabulated, so that the minute a visitor arrives he will be informed by the reception committee exactly where he will find "home" awaiting him.

While the veterans will be entertained in the homes of the people, at the same time they will have a camp of their own where they can assemble for lunch and supper and talk over the old days of 61-65.

The business sessions of the reunion will be held at Atlanta's auditorium-armory, which has a seating capacity of more than eight thousand. Two blocks from the auditorium is the state capitol, and its spacious grounds, by agreement of Governor Dorsey, will be made into an encampment for the veterans. A street on one side will be roped off and turned into a commissary, where lunch and supper will be served the veterans free.

Atlanta is looking forward to the veterans' reunion as she has to no occasion in the past forty years. She has not forgotten that in 1864 it was these same men who gallantly defended her against Sherman's hosts. Only once before in her history did the veterans hold their reunion here, and that was twenty-one years ago. Her people feel that they owe a debt of gratitude to the veterans which they can never repay, but what it takes to show their appreciation they will have ready when the first old hero steps off the train on October 7.

Evolution is better than revolution.—Senator Penrose.

The Voice of the South (By LUTHER HARRISON)

A voice from the past is calling today
To the marching men in the Ada street;
It comes from the hills of the far away,
Where the soldier rests in his winding sheet.

'Tis the voice that rang through the Sunny South
In the fearful days when the fields were red;
It called from the lips of the cannon's mouth,
When all but half of the nation bled.

'Tis the voice that swept through the angry flame
That scorched the flag of Ashby's men,
And cheered the legions that Hampton lead
Through the Bull Run fight and the Sharpsburg glen.

It called to the men that Walthall lead,
As he battled Hooker among the skies;
It followed Morgan where fields ran red
And summoned the sons of the South to rise.

The voice that Hill and Stonewall heard
At the White Oak Swamp and Malvern Hill—
The voice that Stuart's horsemen heard
As they charged to death at Gaines' Mill.

It rang through the ranks of the mad brigades
That followed Pickett to the edge of Hell;
That drowned the wrath of the battle's roar
With the ringing sweep of the rebel yell.

It filled the valleys of Tennessee
And the Franklin field where Cleburne died.
It rode with Semmes on the far-spread sea
And swung his flag on the Biscay tide.

'Tis the deathless voice of the Sunny South
To the sons of men who long ago
Dared to meet a world in arms
And force respect from an angry foe.

And this is the voice of the Ada streets
That brings a call to the sons of men
To draw their sword from the easeful sheath
And fight on the side of truth again.

To strike that a world may rest in peace,
That lies may perish and truth survive,
To glorify the blue-crossed flag
That was furled forever in sixty-five.

LET US HAVE PEACE

It was a wise thing the administration did in withdrawing our troops from Mexico as soon as the bearded mongrel of Montezuma's palace cracked his whip. We were in great danger of provoking the anger of the people below the border and we could not afford to do that. The Mexicans are a dangerous people when aroused, and they were about to lose their temper: Hence it was a most wise thing to turn the backs of our cavalry towards the bandit bands and beat it back into the good old U. S. A.

So long as we have a lot of fool-hardy American farmers and ranchmen living along the Rio Grande we are in danger of an invasion from Mexico. Our citizens have no right to endanger the peace of the entire country by raising cattle and milo along the border. They are liable to be murdered at any moment, and every murder perpetrated by the Mexicans only serves to make the Mexicans more dangerous. Those border settlers should get away from the border and get away at once. They should fall back behind the Brazos or the Trinity, and if necessary to preserve the peace, they should fall back behind the Red or the Arkansas.

It may prove necessary in the immediate future to reach an agreement with the government of Mexico. We can insure peace for a generation by forgetting a lot of our foolish pride and making concessions to Carranza. We can give them Texas and the other border states and draw a new national boundary along the edge of Oklahoma. This would probably satisfy the Latins for a generation, and then when they lose their temper again we can retire to the Arkansas or the Missouri and permit the descendants of Santa Anna to civilize the Southwest as they have already civilized San Luis Potosi and Tamulipas. Within a few years they can elevate Texas and Oklahoma farmers to the same high state of prosperity now enjoyed by the peons of Torreón.

In the meantime we should haul down and burn the flag on the American consulates in Mexico. We should raise a new flag that is not so offensive to the brave bandits who pillaged Columbus. A yellow flag would be most appropriate. Then we should apologize to Carranza for the foolishness of those American ranchmen who tried to save their wives and babies from the bandits. We should also pay the bandits for every American they have slain.

The other day we heard a prominent citizen of Oklahoma say that all this clamor about the cost of living is more psychological than economic. Now you know what ails you. When you have one deep and expansive pain in your stomach and think you are hungry, you are badly mistaken. It is a psychological condition, and instead of eating or sending for a doctor you had better get out your copy of Ladd or Mark Baldwin and send for a college professor. And when your purse feels empty, do not jump at the conclusion that you are broke. Your purse is simply effected in a psychological way and needs a course in applied psychology at Harvard University. And when your back gets bare and your toes come through the uppers of your shoes and you feel like you need some ready cash and need it p. d. q., don't get batty and fall for the delusion. The condition of your wearing apparel is a psychological one purely and has nothing to do with economics or the law of supply and demand.

Mrs. Cowgill Here.
Mrs. Mary King Cowgill of Edmond, Okla., is one of the prominent daughters in attendance at the reunion. She is state historian for the organization and is being entertained at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin Brown. Mrs. Cowgill was reared at McGee, this county, and has many old time friends in this community.

O. N. Walker says he didn't go to bed at all last night. He was up meeting the late trains and taking care of the incoming veterans. Mr. Walker deserves much credit for his untiring work in behalf of the veterans.

If the veterans don't get all they want to eat, it will be their own fault, says O. N. Walker, secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. The big kitchen at the Normal is loaded with good things to eat and they have a competent force to prepare and serve it. They were ready for business early this morning.

Capt. Sam H. Hargis came in from Miami early yesterday morning all set for the big reunion. He said he was at the disposal of the committees and wanted to do all in his power to see that the visiting veterans had a glorious time at Ada. The captain is enforcement officer for the state highway department and for several days has been in Ottawa county in discharge of duties connected with his office.

Capt. W. H. Fisher was on the job bright and early this morning and wishes us to inform the public that he fully recovered and recuperated while in Sulphur.

Capt. A. M. Crow is busy as a bird dog. He says he doesn't care how hard he works during the reunion if all the visitors have a good time. Capt. Crow is one of the liveliest "young men" in the ranks of the veterans.

Mrs. J. R. Armstrong is here from Oklahoma City as one of the Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Armstrong's husband is a member of the Oklahoma Criminal Court of Appeals.

J. M. Hoard, former mayor of Ardmore, is attending the reunion and boosting his city as the meeting place for the next reunion. Mr.

Hoard served in the First Texas as a sharp shooter in the campaigns in Missouri and Arkansas. After receiving a severe wound in the fight at Yellow Bayou in Louisiana he was transferred to the Texas Rangers, and was with that famous organization at Brownsville, Texas, when the war came to an end.

W. D. Matthews of Oklahoma City is an interested visitor at the reunion. He served thru the war with a Mississippi regiment and is now serving his second term as state commissioner of charities and corrections.

The program of the convention was carried out without deviation this morning with the exception of the response to the welcome address. This was to have been delivered by A. S. McKennon of McAlester, but for some cause he failed to arrive in time, so the response was made by Colonel Treadwell of McAlester.

Owing to the absence of General Halley, Oklahoma commander U. C. V., General Bard presided at the convention. Work of the morning consisted among other things of appointing the customary committees, the welcome addresses, etc. City Attorney Dean addressed the Veterans on behalf of the city in place of Mayor Kitchens. Judge J. F. McKeel welcomed them for the Chamber of Commerce and Mrs. Tom Hope spoke for the Women's Auxiliary to the Chamber of Commerce. All these addresses were eloquently delivered. Responses were made by Mrs. A. G. Eakins of Shawnee and Colonel Treadwell of McAlester.

Dinner was served for the Veterans today in the S. A. T. C. mess hall of the Normal building. About twenty young ladies of Ada waited on the tables in excellent manner. About 100 people can be served there at a time and three tables were filled before the crowd had finished eating. Breakfast will be served there each morning at 8 o'clock and supper in the evening at 6.

Colonel R. A. Sneed of Sulphur is among the delegates attending the convention. Colonel Sneed is the Pension Commissioner for Oklahoma recently appointed by Governor Robertson. There are now about 2,400 Confederate soldiers in the state receiving pensions.

Among the visitors at the convention are Miss Coleman Carlotta Walker of Scipio, sponsor; Miss Elizabeth Gotcher of McAlester, Maid of Honor; Miss Zora Fulson of Stigler, Maid of Honor; and Captain Blanche Leach of Sedalia, Mo.

Chapone. The three former in addition to being daughters of the Confederacy are also members of the Choctaw tribe. When these young ladies were presented to the audience this morning Miss Leach made a splendid talk of inspiration and praise to the soldiers.

Walter Gowen is in attendance at the reunion helping the old soldiers to get from place to place in the building and seeing to their entertainment generally.

President Gordon added a word of welcome to the Veterans this morning on behalf of the Normal. He stated that the Normal building was gladly furnished for the benefit of the reunion and that the reception rooms were also at their disposal, including stationery, stamps, etc.

General Sam Hargis, better known in Ada as "Captain" was appointed sergeant-at-arms for the convention.

The H. S. V. U. S. have erected a stand on Main street where they are serving ice cream and soda water, the funds secured to go to the High school fund.

Colonel Jim Story of Bokchito is among the delegates at the reunion. Colonel Story is editor of the Bokchito News and a member of the board of the Confederate Veterans Home at Ardmore. There are several other members of this board present and they will hold an official meeting at Ada before the reunion comes to an end.

Honorable J. F. McKeel paid a glowing tribute to Senator Owen this morning in his address to the Veterans and gave the senator the title of the next President of the United States. When Mr. McKeel thus characterized the senator he probably did not know that the senator's mother-in-law, Mrs. G. B. Hester, sat on the platform near him. Mrs. Hester is one of the most interesting characters in Oklahoma and her soul is wrapped up in the Confederacy. Her husband was a captain in the Confederate army, and Mrs. Hester herself helped nurse sick soldiers of the Lost Cause in the stirring days of the 60's. She has been a citizen of Oklahoma for 60 years, living 40 years of this time at Boggy Depot. Her husband was a merchant at Boggy for 40 years where he sold goods to the Indians and helped them with their legislation and in making out other instruments of record. Mr. Hester was also a great friend to man and worked as a missionary among the Indians for many years and gave liberally of his means to employ others in this work. Mr. Hester conducted a Sunday school for 30 years at Boggy, during which time he financed the school with his own means. When asked by the reporter about her distinguished son-in-law, Mrs. Hester threw up her hands and smiled. She spoke softly and stated that Owen had been living at their house for 30 years and that he was a statesman. She added that the senator's wife was the politician and lobbyist, but that the senator was a statesman and that she was very, very proud of him. Mrs. Hester will be in charge of the Memorial exercises at the Normal at noon tomorrow. This is one of the most impressive exercises of the convention and a large crowd of the women of Ada are expected to be out there on that occasion.

One should never doubt.—Marshall Foch.

The Real Reason We Fought

President Wilson in his address to congress, which had been called in session to declare war, said:

"With a profound sense of the solemn and even tragical character of the step I am taking and of the grave responsibilities which it involves, but in unhesitating obedience to what I deem my constitutional duty, I advise that the congress declare the recent course of the Imperial German government to be in fact nothing less than war against the government and people of the United States; that it formally accept the status of belligerent which has thus been thrust upon it; and that it take immediate steps not only to put the country in a more thorough state of defense, but also to exert all its power and employ all its resources to bring the government of the German empire to terms and end the war."

When on April 6, 1917, congress declared war on Germany it adopted the following:

"Whereas the Imperial German government has continued these acts of war against the government and the people of the United States of America.

"Therefore be it resolved by the senate and the house of representatives of the United States of America in congress assembled that the state of war between the United States and the Imperial German government which has been thrust upon the United States is hereby formally declared."

On June 14, 1917, President Wilson said:

"It is plain enough how we were forced into the war. The extraordinary insults and aggressions of the Imperial German government left us no self-respecting choice but to take up arms in defense of our rights as a free people and of our honor as a sovereign government."

Secretary McAdoo in an address to the American Bankers' association, at Atlantic City, said:

"We entered the war primarily because of the persistent insults and aggressions of Germany, the wanton disregard for American rights within our own borders as well as on the high seas, the contemptuous violation of international law, and the ruthless destruction of American life and property."

There was nothing left for America to do but to fight or else submit to this tyrannical and monstrous edict of the German military despot.

"We chose to fight—and why? Because, first, national honor and self-respect imperatively demanded it, and second, because we can never concede the right of any nation, however powerful, to order American vessels and American citizens to keep off the high seas and prevent America from selling her surplus products of the farm, the factory and the mine to other nations of the world."

The foregoing statements from President Wilson and Secretary McAdoo, and the wording of the resolution of congress when war was declared are the final answer to all of the claims made by some Americans that we entered the war from "altruistic and unselfish" purposes. In these statements as published are the actual facts and the facts as history will record them.

It ill becomes anyone, be he preacher, teacher, editor or publisher, to undertake at this late date to deny that fact so clearly set forth by President Wilson, by Secretary McAdoo and by congress, for it was upon the facts that Germany had made war upon us and that our safety demanded that we should meet Germany's challenge that the country justified the selective draft system. Not for a moment would the country have adopted the draft bill if it had been stated at that time that American soldiers were being drafted merely for an "altruistic" war in which America had no direct interest. We may regret that America was not sufficiently altruistic to see the meaning of the struggle when Belgium and France were murdered, but as a matter of fact we waited until forced by the actual war that Germany was making upon us before we entered the great struggle. We waited, therefore, until our individual safety compelled us to go to war, as much as the lovers of the nation and altruism may have felt from the beginning of the war that our duty was alongside of France and Belgium and England in the effort to save civilization.—Manufacturers' Record.

GOVERNORS CALL COTTON CONFERENCE

By News' Special Service

ATLANTA, Ga., Aug. 26.—For the purpose of discussing the high cost of living, the general economic conditions affecting cotton producers, and to recommend a minimum price for cotton, a great mass meeting will be held in New Orleans, La., September 8 and 9, having been called by the Southern Governors and the American Cotton Association through its president, J. Scottow Wannamaker, St. Matthews, S. C. The call has just been issued from the Atlanta membership campaign headquarters of the organization.

To date the following chief executives have signed the joint proclamation: Gov. Hugh H. Dorsey of Georgia; Gov. Thomas E. Kilby of Alabama; Gov. Charles H. Brough of Arkansas; Gov. Sidney J. Catts of Florida; Gov. A. H. Roberts of Tennessee; Gov. Robert A. Cooper of South Carolina and Gov. William P. Hobby of Texas.

The proclamation follows: "Whereas, the President of the United States in his address to the Congress of the United States on August 8, 1919, has called attention to grave conditions of distress confronting large numbers of our people by reason of constantly rising living costs, due to the perversion of the ordinary laws of supply and demand and to the activities of speculators and profiteers in the necessities of life, and

"Whereas, those conditions are of special concern to the people of the Southern states in view of their absolute dependence upon the cotton industry as the basis of their well-being, and especially in view of the fact that cotton prices have entirely failed to keep pace with the prices of manufactured products and other commodities which they must buy;

"Therefore, we, as Governors of the states of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Georgia, Louisiana, Mississippi, Missouri, North Carolina, Oklahoma, South Carolina, Tennessee, and Texas, in association with the president of the American Cotton Association, do hereby summon representative farmers, merchants, bankers, business and professional men from our several states hereinbefore named, to confer together in the city of New Orleans, La., on the eighth and ninth of September, and to study on behalf of the people of the South, ways and means of dealing with such prices as they relate to the life and comfort of our people; and

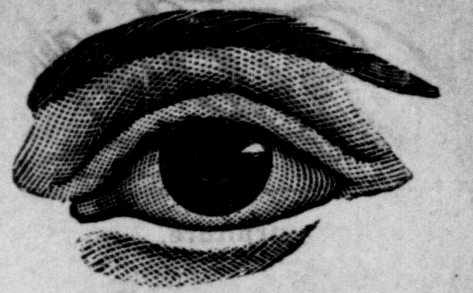

"In particular to study such conditions as relate to the cotton industry as a whole to the determination of a fair and just price for cotton, based solely upon considerations of supply and demand and the price of manufactured products of cotton."

The first day will be devoted mainly to organization and membership work of the association and the consideration of the general situation in the business world. Recommendations of a minimum price for cotton will be the feature of the concluding session, a decision to be reached after the conservative study and discussion of all matters affecting the producers of the staple. Speakers of national and state prominence will be on the program.

$2,100,000 For Additional Telephone Equipment

Every employee of the Telephone Company in Oklahoma is tirelessly striving to attain the same goal; NORMAL SERVICE. But this is no small task. It involves pounds of energy and millions of dollars.

At this time we have under way a construction program that represents an expenditure of $2,100,000 for the current year. Twenty-two construction gangs are working throughout the state on the installation of new switchboards, additions to existing switchboards, new cable facilities, toll circuits, and other urgently needed improvements.

Most of this is work that should have been done last year and the year before. It was not done because it was physically impossible because of war conditions.

But we are still encountering the handicaps imposed by war. We are delayed by over-worked factories, by freight shipments, and by a general shortage of essential equipment. However, the job has been started and we shall not let down until it is finished.

In a number of our exchanges we are giving intensive training to young women to prepare them for central office positions. We are daily welcoming home trained employees released from military service. And we will appreciate the public's confidence and needed co-operation while we all strive to establish the service that Oklahoma rightly deserves.

A FLATTERING ILLUSION.

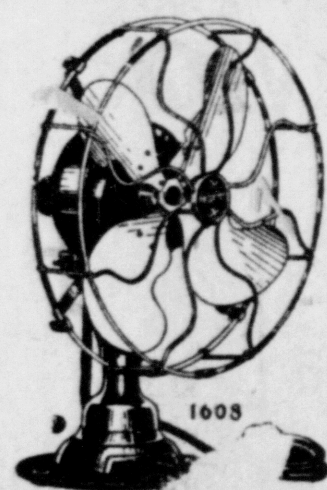

I thank you for the flowers you sent, she said. And then she pouted, blushed and drooped her head. Forgive me for the words I spoke last night; The flowers have sweetly proved that you are right.

Then I forgave her, took her hand in mine, Sealed her forgiveness with the old, old sign;

And as we wandered through the dim lit bowers, I wondered who had really sent the flowers. —New York Tribune.

OKLAHOMA COTTON GINNERS ORGANIZE

ONE HUNDRED GROWERS FROM DIFFERENT PARTS OF THE STATE MEET AT CAPITOL.

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 25.—As a result of a conference held in the hall of the house of representatives Saturday, The Oklahoma Cotton Growers Association will be immediately organized. There were in the neighborhood of 100 growers from various parts of the state as well as representatives of the industries identified with cotton present at the conference, which was called by John A. Whitehurst, president of the state board of agriculture.

B. Harris, representing the national association and the South Carolina Growers Association, was present and explained at length the purposes of the association, which, briefly is "a square deal for the grower."

Mr. Whitehurst explained the difficulties surrounding warehouse conditions and told of the experience of growers who were patrons of the New Orleans warehouses and found that their cotton, instead of being in the warehouse was in the open on the wharf, subject to the mercy of the elements, in peril of destruction by fire or flood and at the mercy of cotton thieves.

"I want to see, as a result of this gathering," said Mr. Whitehurst, "warehouses in Oklahoma, where Oklahoma growers can store their Oklahoma cotton and know that it is properly cared for. The grower is entitled to a 'square deal' and when he markets his own cotton and cares for it himself in the meantime he will get a 'square deal'."

A committee consisting of Mr. Whitehurst, J. P. Connor of Canadian, Carl Williams, Oklahoma City, James A. Wilson, Stillwater, Henry White, Stillwater, W. M. Taylor, Holdenville, Eugent Gumm, Oklahoma City, and J. N. Roach, Atoka, was named to select a board of directors for the association. Upon the shoulders of these men will fall the work and responsibility for the organization of the state. Practically every grower present at the meeting joined the association.

Later in the afternoon the committee reported the selection of the following directors: J. P. Connor, Canadian; W. H. Donahue, Chickasha; B. A. McKinney, Durant; John A. Whitehurst, Oklahoma City; P. A. Norris, Ada; Eugent P. Gumm, Oklahoma City, and F. M. Kirk, Ft. Cobb.

SURGEONS agree that in cases of Cuts, Burns, Bruises and Wounds, the FIRST TREATMENT is most important. ## NOTED BOOTLEGGER IS GIVEN PAROLE

ONE CONDITION IS THAT HE MUST FOREVER ABSENT HIMSELF FROM STATE OF OKLAHOMA.

By News' Special Service

OKLAHOMA CITY, Aug. 25.—Logan Billingsley, sought by Oklahoma county in almost every section of the United States on charges of bootlegging, but always able to evade the officers who went in pursuit of him, was granted a parole Saturday the conditions of which to say the least are unusual, but, according to opinion frequently expressed, of a highly beneficial nature.

For one thing Billingsley "must forever absent himself from the borders of Oklahoma." While no doubt acceptable to Billingsley such an exile from a state is a rather unusual condition. He must pay, and has, all the court costs connected with the various prosecution in which he has been defendant. Receipts for the payment of more than $1,200 to officials of Oklahoma county were displayed to the pardon and parole officer and in addition it was stated that more than $800 additional, representing the expense accounts of various officers who have gone "hither and yon" in pursuit of Billingsley, have also been liquidated.

A disinterested citizen of Oklahoma City, commenting upon the Billingsley matter Saturday, voiced what is probably the consensus of public opinion when he said: "Billingsley was beyond the reach of Oklahoma officials and always managed to stay beyond their reach and probably never would be apprehended and returned to the state. It would serve no good purpose to 'send good money after bad' and he has 'decorated the mahogany' to a very large extent. It seems to me that Oklahoma county has collected a debt that she never expected would be liquidated and in addition, under the terms of the parole she is forever rid of a man who has caused her endless trouble. Billingsley apparently is satisfied and I guess everyone else ought to be."

An Oklahoma City attorney, who represented Billingsley in the adjustment of the court costs and other expenses by which he freed himself from further "chase" by the state, said that the subject of the parole is now in Toledo, Ohio. "I understand that he intends to secure an interest in a motion picture theater there and he certainly intends to lead a different life in the future."

HAMMOND, Ind., Aug. 26.—Because she loved him still, Agatha Ratalu hit her husband in the face with a plate.

"I did it to save his life," she told the court.

"What do you mean, save his life?" demanded the judge.

"Well, judge," she explained. "He accused me of not loving him and I got so mad I put rat poison in his tomato salad. Then when he went to eat it I got cold feet and hit him with a plate to knock the fork out of his mouth."

They kissed in court and made up.

If Neah had advertised for help in the News he wouldn't have had to build the ark alone.

WE had a complaint today in regard to charging 20c for 25 pounds of ice; if this has been done it was a mistake on the part of the driver, as we do not want you to pay more than our schedule rate.

Twenty-five pounds of ice at 70 cents per 100 pounds would be 17½ cents, and the driver could probably not make change for this amount.

The driver should give you about thirty pounds for 20 cents. Let me suggest, therefore, coupons would be considerably cheaper, than coupons be used—this would make 25 pounds of ice cost you 16 2-3 cents.

We have delivered written instructions to our drivers to discontinue this practice and to give back even change, as near as possible, where 25 pounds of ice is necessary.

OF GEN. HAILEY

hospitable citizens of Ada. We have been here before and have learned from experience that we get the best of everything in Ada. We will make this reunion an epoch in the history of the Oklahoma Division of the United Confederate Veterans.

As commander of the Oklahoma Division U. C. V., I desire to state briefly some of the activities of our organization during the past year. Due to the war obligations we have probably not done as much as we otherwise would. Many of us have had our time pretty well taken up with our business and the added burdens of the many drives that we have been so glad to take part in that our own affairs have necessarily suffered somewhat. However, notwithstanding this handicap, we have a good record. The Brigade commanders have been faithful in their duties and have been ever ready to respond when the occasion demanded. The Camp commanders have in the same manner given a very satisfactory account of their "charge to keep," and I desire to express my profound appreciation of their kindness to me as well as the splendid manner in which they have performed their official duties during the year.

There are others who are entitled to our sincere thanks for the many benefits bestowed upon the veterans during the past year. Our governor, the Honorable J. B. A. Robertson, has been our steadfast friend and a warm advocate of all things beneficial to our institutions. He has favored us in his recommendations in the matter of appropriations for our home and for our pensioners. I am sure I voice the sentiment of our entire body when I state that he has our appreciation and thanks for his courtesies.

The legislators have been equally friendly. They have not denied us when we asked for betterments and increased appropriations. The members of that august body have done many things that show their affection for and interest in the Confederate veterans. Needless to say we acknowledge the obligation and hereby express our gratitude.

The recent meeting of our legislature, among other splendid things, gave us a pension commissioner whose duties are to look after the pensioners exclusively. Heretofore the Commissioner of Charities and Corrections has had this office added to his already heavy burden and it was difficult for him to give the efficient service he desired to give. The new office of Pension Commissioner assumes complete charge of all the duties of the office. The governor added to the pleasure of the new legislation by appointing one of the most popular veterans in the state to the new position, Col. R. A. Sneed. With Col. Sneed occupying this chair it is absolute assurance that the place will be admirably and justly filled.

The new legislation in regard to pensions has given us an additional appropriation. The pensioners are divided into two classes, "A" and "B." Those in Class A receive $15 per month and those in Class B $10 per month. There was also an addition that gave to the veterans in the Confederate home at Ardmore the sum of $5.00 per month. These are some of the things that we should thank our benefactors for, our governor and legislators.

Col. Sneed, since entering upon his official duties on July 1st, has granted one hundred pensions and states that the list of pensioners in this state will grow to twenty-four hundred.

We have good reason to be proud of the progress made this year along these lines and we are to be congratulated upon having Col. Sneed in the important position of Pension Commissioner.

A word now with regard to the Soldiers Home at Ardmore. I am delighted to be able to say that matters have progressed splendidly there during the past year. There has been perfect harmony and contentment and our old comrade, Judge Sam Box is entitled to receive the thanks of this convention for the able and diplomatic manner in which he has administered the affairs of the home since his incumbency. To give the best idea of what has transpired during the current year, I feel that the report of Judge Box to the board of trustees will be in order. It is as follows:

"I would most respectfully represent and report to you that we have been blessed with a good season and have had a fine garden and truck patches and a bountiful fruit crop of plums, cherries and peaches. The latter are especially fine and we are just now in the midst of canning them. We have up fifty gallons of plums, fifty gallons of beet pickles, fifty gallons of peach pickles, and are still canning. We have made three hundred pounds of lye soap out of grease which otherwise would have been thrown away. We have plenty of hay of our own raising, to feed our stock for the winter and raised fifty-six bushels of wheat. We have a good team of mares, six good milk cows and three calves, nine hogs, five of which are full blood Duroc Jerseys, and three hundred chickens."

"There have been thirteen deaths in the home during the year, eleven men and two women. We have had seventeen admissions and four withdrawals. The general health in the home at this time is good. All of which I am pleased to submit to your honorable body."

Now my comrades I consider that a very fine report. I believe we should congratulate Comrade Box on his fine showing. It is a matter of great pleasure to the board that we have not had the complaints that usually come to us which is an evidence of our superintendent's patience as well as ability.

Before closing I desire to call your attention to the fact that we are to have a national reunion this year. Our country was in the midst of war when we were in convention at Tulsa last year and there was as a consequence no application from any city inviting us for the reunion of 1919. Gen. Van Zandt was given the power by his department commanders in selecting a place. There had been too much delay that it seemed we would be compelled to forego the pleasure of a general meeting this year. However, the magnanimous and hospitable citizens of the City of Atlanta, Georgia, came to our rescue and have invited us to meet with them Oct. 8th, 9th and 10th. General Van Zandt has accepted the invitation and the date and we will therefore, as many of us as can do so, meet in Atlanta on those dates.

And now my comrades I have partially covered the activities of our organization during the current year and do not care to take your time further. Many items I should have mentioned I have not, for the reason that I feel that it may be better handled by this convention. I now desire to thank you all for the co-operation you have given me in the discharge of my official duties during the year and to assure you that what I have done has been to the best of my ability and with the greatest of pleasure.

Sallow complexion comes from bilious impurities in the blood and the fault lies with the liver and bowels—they are torpid. The medicine that gives results in such cases is HERBINE. It is a fine liver stimulant and bowel regulator. Sold by Bart Smith. Adv.

Ada Playhouses

At the Liberty.
"God's Outlaw," the pleasing metro-drama which is showing here today, tells the story of woods, mountains and rushing streams—and the love of a man and a maid. Life has dealt Andrew Craig, a young sheriff, a crushing blow, and he denies the existence of a divine power. The happy climax is one which shows that however great the depths of despair may be, love is a ladder that reaches to the pinnacles of happiness and sunshine.

At the American.
The Outcast of Poker Flats showing at the American today is an immortal story, written by an immortal author—Bret Harte. It takes you through the entire gamut of human emotions, love, hope, sorrow, jealousy and happiness. It's a vivid picture of the West that was filmed in the very location around which it was written. Six reels of an intensely human story with the lights and shadows of drama, and comedy relief supremely blended.

Frank Family Reunion.
A reunion of the Frank family is being held this week at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Frank. Besides their own family those present are I. Frank of Quincy, Illinois, father of William Frank, and a veteran of the Union army, and Mrs. Koch, a daughter of Mrs. Frank, and her children from Oklahoma City.

Kenneth Frank, the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank, arrived home from Camp Travis on a thirty days furlough. Kenneth enlisted in the regular army in July, 1916, when only sixteen years old, after having served ten months on the Mexican border. He went overseas in September, 1917, and spent twenty-three months in Europe, taking part in the offensives of Chateau Thierry, Soissons, St. Mihiel, Champagne, and the Argonne. He was also at Verdun and Pont-A-Mousson. He was with the army of occupation at Coblenz for seven months with the 2nd Division, and returned to the United States two weeks ago. This is his first visit home since his enlistment in 1916.

Mrs. Willie E. Clark and little son, George, left last night for their home at Appleton City, Mo., after a four weeks' visit to Mrs. Clark's sister, Mrs. R. S. Newcomb, 821 East 16th.
